

Policy on Research

---

THE ACA:

- Supports the research initiatives of recognised Australian chiropractic educational institutions.
- Will endeavour to make funds available for specific research projects.
- Will endeavour to promote cooperation with other research bodies to expedite and reduce the cost of research into chiropractic.
- Seeks research funding from government and other funding bodies to investigate the clinical observations of chiropractors and for other chiropractic research.