

Bumps, Birth,
Babies & Beyond
18-19 March 2022
Brisbane, QLD

FRIDAY 18 March 2022

2:00 – 3:00pm	Registration
3:00 – 3:15pm	Symposium Opening – Welcome - Dr Helen Alevaki
3:15 – 4:00pm	Matrescence, motherhood and chiropractic - a role for allied health – Dr Alison Young
4:00 – 4:30pm	Afternoon Break
4:30 – 5:30pm	Functional disconnection between the brain hemispheres Part 1 – Dr Genevieve Dharamaraj
5:30 – 6:15pm	How bias affects outcomes in pregnancy and birth – Dr Julie Uren
6:15pm	Close of Day

SATURDAY 19 March 2022

8:15 – 8:30am	Welcome - Sponsors
8:30 – 11:00am	Why on earth would a newborn baby need a chiropractor? – Dr Joyce Miller (includes 15minute break)
11:00 – 11:30am	Morning Break
11:30 – 12:30pm	Childbirth as a rite of passage – Dr Rachel Reed
12:30 – 1:00pm	Plagiocephaly – What is the relevance, how to assess and manage children presenting with plagiocephaly - Dr Matthew Doyle
1:00 – 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00 – 3:00pm	Functional disconnection between the brain hemispheres Part 2 – Dr Genevieve Dharamaraj
3:00 – 3:45pm	Primitive reflexes as an indicator of neuro-development - Dr Edna Giuntini
3:45 – 4:15pm	Afternoon Break
4:15 – 5:00pm	The Importance of tummy time for developmental outcomes – Dr Jacey Pryjma
5:00pm	Symposium Close Drinks & Canapes until 7.00pm